No More White-Headed Matches.

The U. S. patent office last week took a short cut to the solution of problems which arose over legislation to prohibit the use of poisonous phosphorus in matches, and canceled the patent on sesquisulphide held by the Diamond Match Company. Sesquisul-phide is considered a harmless substitute for white phosphorus, which is claimed to cause necrosis and other diseases, and the use of which in match manufacture, bill by Congressman Esch seeks to prevent. "The cancellation was at the instance of the Diamond Match Company, and in line with a suggestion made by President Taft."

The independent match manufacturers fought the Esch bill, charging that it virtually would provide the Diamond Company with a monopoly. The so-called trust assigned to Charles P.
Neill, Commissioner of Labor, for the American Federation of Labor, as trustees, all rights under the patent on condition that any match company wishing to use the patent might do so on paying a fee set by the trustees.

President Taft, in a letter to the trustees, urged the owner of the patent and the licensees to permit the cancelling of the patent in order to insure to American workmen protection against what he termed "unnecessary and loathsome diseases."

The President in his annual message recommended that a prohibitive tax be placed on the manufacture of white phosphorus matches. The trustees of the patent wrote to the President, declaring this recommendation had placed the match industry in an embarrassing position, and his letter followed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Judicial Distinction.

A man whose trousers were stolen is doubtless all the trousers were worth, but sets a ridiculously low es-guish."
